

The Idea / The Dream: Be creative and build a body of work. Share it on a website where it can be observed, experienced, and appreciated. Cobblestoneartworks.com

What might be a productive use for the results of this effort?

Just an idea, a dream, to bring all this creative production together in a building for people to visit as they would a museum or gallery, restaurant, or coffee shop. CobblestoneArtworks.com would provide the paintings and images for the walls. CobblestoneGames.com would provide the activities, entertainment, and products for the gift shop and tables. The hope was to join in a venture to monetize the enterprise and coordinate marketing and product fulfillment.

Dream Big. It's half the fun. Just kidding about the Metropolitan, but if dreams are big enough, you might imagine they will someday come true. Hope springs eternal. A labor of love, a gift of God, to create, to entertain.
